Type of Insurance Cover

This is personal travel insurance.

Significant Product Features, Benefits and Exclusions

The levels of cover and excesses that apply are set out in the Table of Benefits in the Travel Insurance Policy. Certain sections of your policy carry an excess which means that you have to pay the first sum per person, per incident if you claim. The table below sets out some of the significant benefits and exclusions of your policy. The policy includes many other benefits, conditions and exclusions.

Some optional sections of cover are only available if you have selected them at the time of buying your policy and paid the required additional premium.

Please read your policy wording to make sure that the cover is suitable for you.

The Significant Conditions And Exclusions

Medical Conditions existing prior to purchasing this policy

If you or any person insured on your policy have, at the time of taking out this insurance (or prior to any trip), suffered from or received any form of medical advice, treatment or medication for any of the following medical conditions you need to declare this to us by phoning 01376 560 800.
